

HENRY T. BREAM IS HONORED BY 500 FRIENDS AT COLLEGE DINNER

Glowing tributes were showered upon Henry T. Bream, head football and basketball coach at Gettysburg college since 1927, at a testimonial dinner Saturday evening in Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium on the campus as the climax to observance of "Hen Bream Day."

More than 500 friends, townfolk, college faculty members and former athletes that included most of the "greats" of Gettysburg college gridiron history of the last quarter century gathered to help heap praises upon "the redhead."

Sharing the limelight with "Hen" Bream were C. E. Bilheimer, athletic director at the college, and Romeo Capozzi, trainer. There were presents for all of them — a new Oldsmobile "88" super deluxe coach automobile, a watch and a pen and pencil set for "Hen" Bream and watches for Bilheimer and Capozzi.

But more numerous and more elaborate than the material gifts were the words of praise, which speakers showered upon the trio.

"Outstanding Coach"

Of "Hen" Bream, C. William Duncan, toastmaster for the dinner, said: "He's the greatest small college coach in America and one of the outstanding coaches in the entire nation."

Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president, called the guest of honor: "A Christian gentleman, a great athlete, a coach that loves the game more than he loves the score and who loves boys enough to be their second dad." And he added: "I'm proud to pay tribute to one of the greatest men I know, Hen Bream."

Judge W. C. Sheely, speaking for the community, had these words for "the hero of every kid in Gettysburg":

"He's a good coach, a good fellow, a good citizen and a good friend but best of all he's still the same Hen Bream we knew in high school."

Former Coach W. W. "Bill" Wood, now of Sailor Snug Harbor, N. Y., spoke of the "compounded courage, the surging spirit and the unbounded enthusiasm of the redhead."

Other Schools Represented

Representatives of Dickinson, Mt. St. Mary's, Muhlenberg and Lafayette colleges attended the dinner and were introduced.

After the invocation by Dr. Hanson, the assemblage stood with bowed heads for a moment in tribute to Ira D. Plank, long time Gettysburg college football coach recently "called out by the Great Empire," and in memory of the college athletes who gave their lives in World War II and in the Korean war.

These representatives of nearby colleges were introduced: Ben James of Dickinson; Rev. Fr. Michael Kennedy, Mt. St. Mary's; Bernie Aughrbaugh of Muhlenberg; Charlie Gilbert of Lafayette, and Eddie Guilian, head football and basketball coach at Albright college, Reading.

Biglerville's Tax Deadline Extended

Elmer L. Haner, Biglerville's new tax collector, today announced a ten-day extension during which county and borough taxes may be paid at par.

Today was to have been the last day on which the county and borough taxes could be paid at par, but because many did not have an opportunity to pay taxes because of the sudden death of the previous tax collector and the necessary delay until a new one could be appointed and his bond approved, the time at which taxes will be received at par has been extended until October 10, Haner said. School taxes are payable at par until October 15.

Mr. Haner, whose bond as tax collector was approved by the Adams county court Saturday, will start receiving taxes today at his home in the Osborn apartments on South Main street, Biglerville.

The new collector was appointed by the Biglerville borough council after the death of Dale Bricker.

8th Army Takes 3 Peaks Near Heartbreak Ridge As Allies Resume Heavy Korea Fighting

Tokyo, Oct. 1 (P)—Red leaders persisted today in their long silence on an Allied proposal to change the Korean truce meeting place from Kaesong to no-man's-land.

Gen. Omar Bradley said Sunday the future of the armistice negotiations "will depend on the nature" of the Communist reply.

He had told a news conference in Tokyo Sunday "no one can foresee if they (the truce talks) will be successful or not. I don't think anyone expected quick results."

He expressed hope that an armistice can be reached, but made it clear that was up to the Reds.

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Oct. 1 (P)—The Eighth Army is "prepared to strike, and strike hard" in Korea if the Reds want all-out war instead of truce talks.

That warning was issued tonight in Tokyo by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's public information office.

It came as Gen. Omar N. Bradley, America's top military leader, and Ridgway toured command posts on the eastern front where the United Nations' autumn offensive got underway last Tuesday.

THIRD BIGGEST TOURIST YEAR ENDS SUNDAY

Tourist visitation to Gettysburg continues to increase with the National Park office here estimating that 684,659 toured the field during the past travel year.

The figure, 684,659, sent in Sunday evening to the U. S. Department of Interior at the end of the travel season, which extends from October 1 to September 30, showed an increase over the previous year of 24,136.

Only two years have exceeded the past 12 months in total tourist visitation. Top year was 1938 when the dedication of the Peace Light Memorial here and the reunion of the Blue and Gray brought 1,534,234 tourists here. The second largest visitation in history occurred in 1929 when 727,335 were here.

Cars, Buses Up

The tourists came in 10,742 more automobiles than were here in the 1950 travel year. The number of visiting cars during the year ending Sunday was 164,334. For the comparable period ending September 21, 1950, the number of cars was 153,592.

An increase was noted in the number of buses. During the past year 1921 buses carrying 32,429 persons — mostly school youngsters, toured the field. For the previous year there were 934 buses with 32,432 passengers.

Attendance at the cyclorama increased by 4,546 over the previous year. During the last 12-month period 24,678 visited the massive painting on Baltimore street. For the same period a year previous the number was 19,132.

Park officials said the park visitation during August this year, 141,461, was the heaviest of any month other than July, 1939, when the 75th anniversary brought hundreds of thousands here.

December is the low month for tourist travel, the records show. Last December only 4,600 persons in 1,197 cars toured the field. In November, with good weather helping, the visitation was 19,505 in 4,782 cars and 233 in 11 buses. January, while also a poor month, saw 7,936 tourists here traveling in 1,939 cars and six buses.

May was the best month for buses, with 476 bringing 14,026 school (Please Turn to Page 2)

8th Army Takes 3 Peaks Near Heartbreak Ridge As Allies
Resume Heavy Korea Fighting

Tokyo, Oct. 1 (AP)—Red leaders persisted today in their long silence on an Allied proposal to change the Korean truce meeting place from Kaesong to no-man's-land.

Gen. Omar Bradley said Sunday the future of the armistice negotiations "will depend on the nature" of the Communist reply.

He had told a news conference in Tokyo Sunday "no one can foresee if they (the truce talks) will be successful or unsuccessful. I don't think anyone expected quick results."

He expressed hope that an armistice can be reached, but made it clear that was up to the Reds.

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Eighth Army is "prepared to strike, and strike hard" in Korea if the Reds want all-out war instead of truce talks.

That warning was issued tonight in Tokyo by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's public information office.

It came as Gen. Omar N. Bradley, America's top military leader, and Ridgway toured command posts on the eastern front where the United Nations' autumn offensive got underway last Tuesday.

Take Three Peaks

South Korean troops in that mountainous sector "bared their bayonets Monday and drove 500 to 600 Reds off the third crest of a ridgeline west of Heartbreak Ridge. They won the other two peaks Sunday night. Other South Koreans captured a hill northwest of the Punchbowl, north of Yanggu.

On the other side of the war-torn peninsula, sunny skies brought the air war back to Korea. Twenty-seven U. S. F-86 Sabre jets clashed with about 40 red-nosed Communist MIG-15s in a series of dogfights that swirled for 25 minutes north of Sinanju.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said one of the Russian-made MIGs was destroyed and three were damaged. No Allied losses were reported.

Of truce negotiations, the Ridgway headquarters statement said, "The whole issue of the resumption of talks is one that cannot be hedged much longer."

Allies Are Ready

"Meanwhile, indications are that the Eighth Army is not planning to sit idly by while the Communists string out negotiations for another long period. A few days ago Gen. James A. Van Fleet said, 'Whether this new effort will be limited, I am not at liberty to say.' But the fact remains that the U. N. command army is poised and prepared to strike, and strike hard should the Reds decide that they have had enough of the armistice talks and wish to get on with the war on an all-out scale."

The statement said Bradley's visit "highlights the tension of the entire Korean problem."

Bluffing Is Over

"The Communists must realize that the time for bluffing is over," Bradley, chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, was accompanied to Korea by Ridgway, Van Fleet and Charles (Chip) Bohlen, U. S. State Department expert on Russia.

Bradley's itinerary was not disclosed. However, he is expected to confer with all or most corps and division commanders and inspect some of the United Nations units near the front.

The capture of the third ridgeline peak near Heartbreak Ridge by South Korean troops Monday came on their second assault. A pooled dispatch said they reached the crest in the morning, only to be pushed off by Red defenders.

Terrors Spoil "Hen Bream Day" By Nosing Out Bullets 13-6

A scrappy Gettysburg college team became the victim of the breaks, many created by itself, to drop a 13-6 decision to Western Maryland college here Saturday afternoon before nearly 4,000 fans to cast a pall of gloom on local fans who were present to help celebrate "Hen Bream Day."

In scoring its fourth victory in the 22-game series, Western Maryland tallied its initial touchdown midway in the second quarter after Ira Zepp recovered a fumble on the Gettysburg 47. Walt Henderson, Terror back, then fired a pass to Zepp who got behind the Bullet secondary defense on the 16 from where he raced over. The score came in 7:37 minutes of the period. Vic Makovitch's placement for the point was wide.

The Bullets knotted the count late in the third after taking over on the Terror 26 via a punt. Berkly Ward fired a pass to Walt Hemberger for six yards and Vince Rosetti hit the line for a first down on the 15. Al Hersherberger swept left end for 7 yards. Rosetti got two yards on two tries and then Tony Natale, a freshman, went through the right side of the line to score. After being set back five yards for taking too much time, the Bullets missed on the extra point try when Bill Pratt's placement was wide.

Late in the final period Western Maryland took over on its 14 after Bud Hottle's punt. In six plays the visitors scored. After Henderson picked up two yards, Tullia raced to the 43 on a reverse. Henderson whipped a long pass to Zepp who was all alone and who had to wait for the pass, with Earl Yost finally pulling him down from behind on the 17. Warren McFague got six yards through the left side of the line and then Henderson, passed to Hart for a first down on the 1. McFague cracked through to score with 2:48 minutes remaining. Don Phillips made it 13-6 with a placement boot.

The Bullets made a valiant attempt to pull the game from the fire in the waning moments and missed only through a freak interception. Hemberger returned the kickoff to his 41. Ward fired passes to Gene Coder and Hemberger for a first down on the visitors' 46. Another aerial to Hemberger put the ball on the 31. Following a 4-yard gain on pass interference, Ward heaved an aerial to Coder on the 7. The next pass bounced off the chest of Rosetti and was snarled by Henderson who was downed on the 9.

Electing to run the clock out with ground plays, the Terrors failed as Gettysburg took over on the 14 with but four seconds remaining. The game ended as Ward's final pass was grounded.

Bullets Halted by Fumbles
Early in the opening period the Bullets picked up three straight first downs to reach the Terrors' 26 only to lose the ball when Rentko recovered a Bullet pitchout on the 33. A pass interception by Ed Kelly in the opening minutes of the second period stopped the Bullets after they had reached 29 to kill another scoring threat.

During the first half the Bullets fumbled five times and four were recovered by the invaders.

The Bullets had a 17-10 edge on first downs and outgained their opponents' 347 yards to 292.

Over a hundred former Bullet athletes, returning for "Hen Bream Day," occupied special seats along the sidelines.

Next Saturday Drexel, who came from behind Saturday to nip Ursinus 14-13, will engage the Bullets here.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—Last spring somebody said there ought to be a congressional investigation if the Dodgers didn't win the National league pennant. Now there's only one reason for picking them over the Giants in the championship play-off—a big money-playing guy named Jackie Robinson. Brooklyn's pitching staff is pretty well used up after the dragged out finish that saw six men work on the mound in yesterday's 14-inning windup against the Phillies. Most of them toiled without enough rest and big Don Newcombe was about the tireddest man you ever saw when they finally took him out in the 13th. But as you look back on that final series you keep seeing Robinson—Jackie making an amazing stop of Dick Sisler's boulder Saturday night and turning it into a double play; Robinson knocking himself out as he made a diving catch of Eddie Waitkus' low, sinking liner with the bases full yesterday and Robinson poling a tremendous 14th inning homer to win the all-important game and save the Dodgers' pennant chance. Maybe the Giants are the hot club but you can't pick against a guy like that.

MONDAY MATINEE
Notice some of those football scores Saturday: 40 to 34, 33-20, 54-20, 27-26 and the like? ... Looks as if the college coaches were acting like the pros did during the war years, when anybody could score and nobody could, or would, tackle.

The fans got darn tired of it before Steve Owen and Greasy Neale showed 'em that a solid defense could win games, too. ... Did you know that Johnny Olszski's pass that gave California a touchdown against Penn was the first big fullback ever threw in competition? That wasn't all he did, either. He bumped into one Penn tackler so hard the guy was knocked over backwards and his faking that he had the ball on some handoffs from Billy Mals even had the guys in the press box thinking he took the thing.

WELL RESTED YANKEES ARE GIVEN "EDGE"

By JACK HAND

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—By the time the two-deep Brooklyn staff and the New York Giants get through deciding the National league pennant, the well rested New York Yankees should enjoy a solid edge in pitching for the World Series.

Pitching was Manager Casey Stengel's ace in the hole for a third straight Yankee pennant. His solid big three of Allie (No-hit) Reynolds (17-8), Vic Raschi (21-10) and Ed Lopat (21-9) commanded the respect of the American League.

When Casey needed to put on the pressure in the late September drive, all three responded with steady winning work. There is no reason why this veteran trio, already tested in series competition, shouldn't prove hard to beat in a short series.

Giants Pitching Strong
Brooklyn leaned on Preacher Roe (22-3) and Don Newcombe (20-9) all summer long, especially Roe. Time after time the Preacher righted the Dodgers with an inspiring effort. Carl Erskine (16-12) picked up half his wins on relief and Ralph Branca (13-10) did his best work before the all-star game.

The Giants are better equipped to match the Yankee pitching than the Brooks. Manager Leo Durocher has the top winner in the league in Sal Maglie (23-6), dependable Larry Jensen (22-11), Dave Koslo (10-9), Jim Hearn (16-9) and Sheldon Jones (16-10) for starting roles and George Spencer (10-4) for relief.

Granted the Yanks and Giants might be about even in class, the strenuous closing surge and playoff is bound to take something out of Durocher's staff.

Yankee Pitchers Hot
Reynolds, already named to work the opener, has a 3-0 series record with one win each in 1947, 1949 and 1950. A cool, talented right-hander, he closed the season in dramatic fashion by throwing a no-hitter at Boston to assure at least a tie. Raschi then followed with the clincher.

Despite a sore right elbow that will necessitate a post-series operation, Reynolds closed with a rush. Raschi, too, was bothered by a shoulder stiffening in September but he went all the way in his last two against the Red Sox.

Lopat, winner of his first eight, pitched three shutouts in his last six starts and copped a decisive three-hitter from Cleveland on Phil Rizzuto's squeeze bunt. He was the top left-hander winner in the league.

The Relief Staff
Back of the big three, Stengel would have trouble picking a fourth starter from Johnny Sain (2-1), the ex-Boston Brave, and Tom Morgan (9-3).

Bob Kuzava (11-7), acquired from Washington in mid-June, turned out to be Stengel's best relief man.

Brooklyn popped up with a late season comer in Clem Labine (4-1) who took his regular turn in September, giving Roe and Newcombe a little help. Clyde King (14-7), a relief whiz in early season, lost his effectiveness in the closing weeks.

Dodgers And Giants Begin Play-off For Pennant Today

By JACK HAND

Brooklyn, Oct. 1 (AP)—The New York Giants "miracle men" of '51 and the dead game Brooklyn Dodgers charge into hard-to-hand combat for the National league pennant today in the opener of a best-of-three playoff series.

The tie resulted yesterday under the most dramatic circumstances when Jackie Robinson's 14th inning homer gave the Dodgers a 9-8 edge over the Phillies after Giants had subdued Boston, 3-2, behind Larry Jansen.

All even at the end of the regular 154-game schedule, the Giants and Dodgers collide at Ebbets Field at 1:00 p.m. (EST). And collide may be the proper word for this feud of bitter rivals. The series continues at the Polo Grounds. If a third game is necessary, it will also be played at the Polo Grounds Wednesday.

Series On Thursday
Barring rain, the World Series with the New York Yankees will start Thursday at Yankee Stadium. That goes, even if the Giants or Brooks win in two straight.

Cloudy weather and a little relief from the topest temperatures of the last two days were forecast by the weatherman.

Jim Hearn (16-9) was Manager Leo Durocher's choice to work for the comeback Giants, who earned a 13-6 game Dodge lead of August 11 in a furious 341 stretch drive.

The ex-St. Louis right-hander, picked up for the $10,000 waiver price last year, had a 2-3 record against the Dodgers. Brooklyn leads the Giants 9-2 at Ebbets Field and 13-9 for the season.

Branca Starts
Chuck Dresen of the Brooks, fresh out of pitcher after his team's desperate last stand, had Ralph Branca (13-10) for the opener. The big right-hander was 2-4 against the Giants on the season. He pitched 1 1/3 innings yesterday in relief of Preacher Roe.

While the Dodgers and Giants continued their struggle, the American league champion Yankees scheduled daily workouts to keep in fighting trim. Manager Casey Stengel already has named Allie Reynolds, his double no-hit ace, to pitch the Series opener.

This was the second playoff in the history of the National league, now celebrating its diamond jubilee. In 1946, St. Louis and Brooklyn fought to a dead heat and the Cards polished off the Dodgers two straight.

Giants Won 6 Of Last 7
If past records mean anything, the Dodgers rate a solid edge in their home park where Sal Maglie was the only Giant to win.

But the charged-up Giants, under full steam of a seven-game win streak, are in no mood to worry about past performances. They made their drive in the last seven weeks when they won six of seven from the Brooks.

Dresen feared the Dodgers might have to play without catcher Campanella who pulled a muscle in his leg running out a triple at Philadelphia. But he thought Robinson, badly shaken by his diving game-saving catch on Eddie Waitkus' liner, would be able to go.

Sing Robinson's Praises
Brooklyn still sung with talk of Robinson's deeds at Shibe Park. How he saved the game with that diving catch of a low liner with the bases full in the 12th. How he drove a Robin Roberts pitch deep into the upper tier in left field in the 14th. How the Dodgers overcame a 6-1 Phil lead, finally tied the score in the eighth and won a game they absolutely had to win.

Two were out in the 14th and it looked as if the Sunday curfew might halt the game without a decision when Robinson smashed his homer. If the game had been stopped by the Sunday law with the score tied, it would have been played over completely today.

Jansen's 12th victory clinched the tie at Boston, except for the first and ninth he held the Braves in check. In the nerve-racking ninth, Boston clubbed him for three of his five hits, scored a run and had the winning run on base. Willard Marshall, an ex-Giant, lofted to Irvin for the last big out.

20th For Garver
In other National league games yesterday, the St. Louis Cardinals closed out the season by splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs, losing the opener, 7-6, but winning the second game, 3-0. The nightcap was called after six innings because of darkness. Ralph Kiner blasted a grand slam homer in the 11th inning to give Pittsburgh an 8-4 victory over Cincinnati.

The Yanks, behind Spec Shea and Johnny Sain, blanked the Boston Red Sox, 3-0. In other American league games, the Detroit Tigers beat Cleveland 2-1, St. Louis trounced Chicago, 9-5, and Philadelphia and Washington divided a doubleheader, the Nats taking the opener 4-2 and the A's the second game, 4-3. Ned Garver posted his 20th victory for the tail-end Browns in beating Chicago.

LIONS, BISONS, WILDCATS SHOW GRIDIRON POWER

(By The Associated Press)

Penn State's Nittany Lions, Bucknell's Bisons and the Wildcats of Villanova were the big winners among Pennsylvania colleges over the week-end as virtually every gridiron in the state saw action.

The big universities, Pitt and Penn, took defeats, although Pitt handed Duke university a scare before dropping a 19-14 game.

Penn State had to come from behind three times before finally clinching a 40 to 34 victory over Boston university. Five touchdowns were scored in the third period, three by the Lions and two by Boston U.

Villanova tested Army's demoralized football team and handed the Cadets a 21-7 whipping. It was the first time Army had lost an opener since 1893 and the first Villanova victory over the Cadets since 1908.

The powerful Bucknell team ran roughly over Muhlenberg to rout the Hokies, 54 to 19. The Bisons see hopes for an undefeated season if they can get by Colgate and Temple in their remaining seven games.

Temple university's Owls traveled to Providence, R. I., and scored an uphill 20-14 victory over Brown in the last two minutes of play.

A total of 45 Pennsylvania college eleven were in action. Thirteen of the 32 games involved only Pennsylvania teams. And the representatives of the Keystone state colleges and universities tallied 22 victories.

In Teacher College conference games Bloomsburg drowned Lock Haven 35-6, Clarion was one touchdown better than Edinboro 12-6, Kutztown scored all its points in the first half to defeat Shippensburg 20-7, a conversion game East Stroudsburg a 20-19 victory over Millersville and Indiana took a 7-0 victory over Mansfield.

In other games:
Rutgers routed Lafayette 47-12, Albright defeated Pennsylvania Military college 12-6, Westminster swamped Juniata 38-13, Lehigh took Williams 20-6, Franklin and Marshall rolled over Johns Hopkins 52-7, St. Francis of Loretto got by Wilkes 12-7 in a night game, Trenton State Teachers defeated Kings of Wilkes-Barre 20-7. Scranton remained undefeated as the anthracite university trounced Moravian 36-0.

Indianapolis Gap Military Reservation defeated its neighbor, Lebanon Valley college 12-7. Rochester got two safeties to defeat Allegheny 12-6. Thiel walloped Hiram 46-0, and Drexel was only one point better than Ursinus 14-13.

Western Maryland spoiled Gettysburg's Hen Bream Day celebration honoring the head coach in his 25th year at the college by defeating the Bullets 13-6. St. Vincent trounced David-Elkins of West Virginia 31-6. West Virginia Tech defeated Slippery Rock 13-0. Waynesburg eked out a 7-6 victory over Geneva, and California did likewise with Carnegie Tech winning 14-13.

Dickinson traveled to New England to lose to Trinity 27-7. Washington and Jefferson hit Dennison 29-21 and Montclair (N. J.) Teachers swarmed over National Aggies 33-7.

BROWNS LOSE TO FORTY-NINERS

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—If it had happened in mid-November, the sports world would be a-buzzing for days, if not weeks about it. But this greatest of baseball pennant races has made the defeat of the Cleveland Browns—pro football's greatest team—an almost obsolete item.

But lose the Browns did, and to a team which last season won only three games—the San Francisco 49ers.

Guided by the deft Frankie Albert, the 49ers yesterday upset the mighty Browns, 24 to 10, before 52,219 fans in San Francisco.

It was by far the biggest development of the day as eight National football league teams opened their schedules.

In other openers—and they all ran true to form—Detroit walloped Washington, 35 to 17; Philadelphia edged the Chicago Cardinals, 17 to 14 and the Chicago Bears whipped their perennial enemy, Green Bay, 31 to 20.

There's one game on tap tonight. The Pittsburgh Steelers entertain the New York Giants in Pittsburgh.

Brooklyn's pitching staff is pretty well used up after the dragged out finish that saw six men work on the mound in yesterday's 14-inning windup against the Phillies. Most of them toiled without enough rest and big Don Newcombe was about the tiredest man you ever saw when they finally took him out in the 13th. . . . But as you look back on that final series you keep seeing Robinson—Jackie making an amazing stop of Dick Sisler's boulder Saturday night and turning it into a double play; Robinson knocking himself out as he made a diving catch of Eddie Waitkus' low, sinking liner with the bases full yesterday and Robinson poling a tremendous 14th inning homer to win the all-important game and save the Dodgers' pennant chance. . . . Maybe the Giants are the hot club, but you can't pick against a guy like that.

MONDAY MATINEE
Notice some of those football scores Saturday: 40 to 34, 33-20, 54-20, 27-26 and the like? . . . Looks as if the college coaches were acting like the pros did during the war years, when anybody could score and nobody could, or would tackle. . . . The fans got darn tired of it before Steve Owen and Greasy Neale showed 'em that a solid defense could win games, too. . . . Did you know that Johnny Olszeski's pass that gave California a touchdown against Penn was the first big fullback ever threw in competition? That wasn't all he did, either. He bumped into one Penn tackler so hard the guy was knocked over backwards and his faking that he had the ball on some handoffs from Billy Mals even had the guys in the press box thinking he took the hit.

WELL RESTED YANKEES ARE GIVEN "EDGE"

By JACK HAND

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—By the time the two-deep Brooklyn staff and the New York Giants get through deciding the National league pennant, the well rested New York Yankees should enjoy a solid edge in pitching for the World Series.

Pitching was Manager Casey Stengel's ace in the hole for a third straight Yankee pennant. His solid big three of Allie (No-hit) Reynolds (17-8), Vic Raschi (21-10) and Ed Lopat (21-9) commanded the respect of the American League.

When Casey needed to put on the pressure in the late September drive, all three responded with steady winning work. There is no reason why this veteran trio, already tested in series competition, shouldn't prove hard to beat in a short series.

Giants Pitching Strong
Brooklyn leaned on Preacher Roe (22-3) and Don Newcombe (20-9) all summer long, especially Roe. Time after time the Preacher righted the Dodgers with an inspiring effort. Carl Erskine (16-12) picked up half his wins on relief and Ralph Branca (13-10) did his best work before the all-star game.

The Giants are better equipped to match the Yank pitching than the Brooks. Manager Leo Durocher has the top winner in the league in Sal Maglie (23-6), dependable Larry Jansen (22-11), Dave Koslo (10-9), Jim Hearn (16-9) and Sheldon Jones (6-10) for starting roles and George Spencer (10-4) for relief.

Granted the Yanks and Giants might be about even in class, the strenuous closing surge and playoff is bound to take something out of Durocher's staff.

Yankee Pitchers Hot
Reynolds, already named to work the opener, has a 3-0 series record with one win each in 1947, 1949 and 1950. A cool, talented right-hander, he closed the season in dramatic fashion by throwing a no-hitter at Boston to assure at least a tie. Raschi then followed with the clincher.

Despite a sore right elbow that will necessitate a post-series operation, Reynolds closed with a rush. Raschi, too, was bothered by a shoulder stiffening in September but he went all the way in his last two against the Red Sox.

Lopat, winner of his first eight, pitched three shutouts in his last six starts and copped a decisive three-hitter from Cleveland on Phil Rizzuto's squeeze bunt. He was the top left-hander winner in the league.

The Relief Staff
Back of the big three, Stengel would have trouble picking a fourth starter from Johnny Sain (2-1), the ex-Boston Brave, and Tom Morgan (9-3).

Bob Kuzava (11-7), acquired from Washington in mid-June, turned out to be Stengel's best relief man.

Brooklyn popped up with a late season comer in Clem Labine (4-1) who took his regular turn in September, giving Roe and Newcombe a little help. Clyde King (4-7), a relief whiz in early season, lost his effectiveness in the closing weeks.

AUTOIST KILLED

Lock Haven, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—A New York Central locomotive demolished the auto of John R. Dice, 26, Jersey Shore, Pa., late yesterday, killing Dice instantly. The accident occurred at McElhattan, 19 miles east of Lock Haven. The engineer of the train, J. L. Wolf, also Jersey Shore, told police he was unable to stop before hitting the car.

Dodgers And Giants Begin Play-off For Pennant Today

By JACK HAND

Brooklyn, Oct. 1 (AP)—The New York Giants "miracle men" of '51 and the dead game Brooklyn Dodgers charge into hand-to-hand combat for the National league pennant today in the opener of a best-of-three playoff series.

The tie resulted yesterday under the most dramatic circumstances when Jackie Robinson's 14th inning homer gave the Dodgers a 9-8 edge over the Phillies after Giants had subdued Boston, 3-2, behind Larry Jansen.

All even at the end of the regular 154-game schedule, the Giants and Dodgers collide at Ebbets Field at 1:30 p.m. (EST). And collide may be the proper word for this feud of bitter rivals. The series continues at the Polo Grounds. If a third game is necessary, it will also be played at the Polo Grounds Wednesday.

Series On Thursday
Barring rain, the World Series with the New York Yankees will start Thursday at Yankee Stadium. That goes, even if the Giants or Brooks win in two straight.

Cloudy weather and a little relief from the topcoat temperatures of the last two days were forecast by the weatherman.

Jim Hearn (16-9) was Manager Leo Durocher's choice to work for the comeback Giants, who earned a 13½-game Dodger lead of August 11 in a furious 341 stretch drive.

The ex-St. Louis right-hander, picked up for the $10,000 waiver price last year, had a 2-3 record against the Dodgers. Brooklyn leads the Giants 9-2 at Ebbets Field and 13-9 for the season.

Branca Starts
Chuck Dreesen of the Brooks, fresh out of pitcher after his team's desperate last stand, had Ralph Branca (13-10) for the opener. The big right-hander was 2-4 against the Giants on the season. He pitched 1 1/3 innings yesterday in relief of Preacher Roe.

While the Dodgers and Giants continued their struggle, the American league champion Yankees scheduled daily workouts to keep in fighting trim. Manager Casey Stengel already has named Allie Reynolds, his double no-hit ace, to pitch the Series opener.

This was the second playoff in the history of the National league, now celebrating its diamond jubilee. In 1946, St. Louis and Brooklyn fought to a dead heat and the Cards polished off the Dodgers two straight.

Giants Won 6 Of Last 7
If past records mean anything, the Dodgers rate a solid edge in their home park where Sal Maglie was the only Giant to win.

But the charged-up Giants, under full steam of a seven-game win streak, are in no mood to worry about past performances. They made their drive in the last seven weeks when they won six of seven from the Brooks.

Dreesen feared the Dodgers might have to play without catcher Campanella who pulled a muscle in his leg running out a triple at Philadelphia. But he thought Robinson, badly shaken by his diving game-saving catch on Eddie Waitkus' liner, would be able to go.

Sing Robinson's Praises
Brooklyn still sung with talk of Robinson's deeds at Shibe Park. How he saved the game with that diving catch of a low liner with the bases full in the 12th. How he drove a Robin Roberts pitch deep into the upper tier in left field in the 6-1.

How the Dodgers overcame a 1-4 Phil lead, finally tied the score in the eighth and won a game they absolutely had to win.

Two were out in the 14th and it looked as if the Sunday curfew might halt the game without a decision when Robinson smashed his homer. If the game had been stopped by the Sunday law with the score tied, it would have been played over completely today.

Jansen's 22nd victory clinched the tie at Boston. Except for the first and ninth he held the Braves in check. In the nerve-racking ninth, Boston clubbed him for three of its five hits, scored a run and had the winning run on base. Willard Marshall, an ex-Giant, lofted to Irvin for the last big out.

20th For Garver
In other National league games yesterday, the St. Louis Cardinals closed out the season by splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs, losing the opener, 7-6, but winning the second game, 3-0. The nightcap was called after six innings because of darkness. Ralph Kiner blasted a grand slam homer in the 11th inning to give Pittsburgh an 8-4 victory over Cincinnati.

The Yanks, behind Spec Shea and Johnny Sain, blanked the Boston Red Sox, 3-0. In other American league games, the Detroit Tigers beat Cleveland 2-1. St. Louis trounced Chicago, 9-5, and Philadelphia and Washington divided a doubleheader, the Nats taking the opener 4-2 and the A's the second game, 4-3. Ned Garver posted his 20th victory for the tail-end Browns in beating Chicago.

LIONS, BISONS, WILDCATS SHOW GRIDIRON POWER

(By The Associated Press)

Penn State's Nittany Lions, Bucknell's Bisons and the Wilcats of Villanova were the big winners among Pennsylvania colleges over the week-end as virtually every gridiron in the state saw action.

The big universities, Pitt and Penn, took defeats, although Pitt handed Duke university a scare before dropping a 19-14 game.

Penn State had to come from behind three times before finally clinching a 40 to 34 victory over Boston university. Five touchdowns were scored in the third period, three by the Lions and two by Boston U.

Villanova tested Army's deemphasized football team and handed the Cadets a 21-7 whipping. It was the first time Army had lost an opener since 1893 and the first Villanova victory over the Cadets since 1908.

The powerful Bucknell team ran roughly over Muhlenberg to rout the Mules, 54 to 19. The Bisons see hopes for an undefeated season if they can get by Colgate and Temple in their remaining seven games.

Temple university's Owls traveled to Providence, R. I., and scored an uphill 20-14 victory over Brown in the last two minutes of play.

A total of 45 Pennsylvania college eleveners were in action. Thirteen of the 32 games involved only Pennsylvania teams. And the representatives of the Keystone state colleges and universities tallied 22 victories.

In Teacher College conference games Bloomsburg drowned Lock Haven 35-6, Clarion was one touch-down better than Edinboro 12-6, Kutztown scored all its points in the first half to defeat Shippensburg 20-7, a conversion gave East Stroudsburg a 20-19 victory over Millersville and Indiana took a 7-0 victory over Mansfield.

In other games: Rutgers routed Lafayette 47-12, Albright defeated Pennsylvania Military college 12-6. Westminster swamped Juniata 38-13, Lehigh took Williams 20-6, Franklin and Marshall rolled over Johns Hopkins 52-7, St. Francis of Loretto got by Wilkes 12-7 in a night game, Trenton State Teachers' defeated Kings of Wilkes-Barre 20-7, Scranton remained unscored on as the anthracite university trounced Moravian 36-0.

Indiana Gap Military Reservation defeated its neighbor, Lebanon Valley college 12-7. Rochester got two safeties to defeat Allegheny 12-6, Thiel walked off Hiram 46-0, and Drexel was only one point better than Ursinus 14-13.

Western Maryland spoiled Gettysburg's Hen Bream Day celebration honoring the head coach in his 25th year at the college by defeating the Bullets 13-6. St. Vincent trounced David-Elkins of West Virginia 31-6. West Virginia Tech defeated Slippery Rock 13-0. Waynesburg eked out a 7-6 victory over Geneva, and California did likewise with Carnegie Tech winning 14-13.

Dickinson traveled to New England to lose to Trinity 27-7. Washington and Jefferson hit Dennison 29-21 and Montclair (N. J.) Teachers swarmed over National Aggies 33-7.

BROWNS LOSE TO FORTY-NINERS

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—If it had happened in mid-November, the sports world would be a-buzzing for days, if not weeks about it. But this greatest of baseball pennant races has made the defeat of the Cleveland Browns—pro football's greatest team—an almost obsolete item.

But lose the Browns did, and to a team which last season won only three games—the San Francisco 49ers.

Guided by the deft Frankie Albert, the 49ers yesterday upset the mighty Browns, 24 to 10, before 52,219 fans in San Francisco.

It was by far the biggest development of the day as eight National football league teams opened their schedules.

In other openers—and they all ran true to form—Detroit walloped Washington, 35 to 17; Philadelphia edged the Chicago Cardinals, 17 to 14, and the Chicago Bears whipped their perennial enemy, Green Bay, 31 to 20.

There' one game on tap tonight. The Pittsburgh Steelers entertain the New York Giants in Pittsburgh.

Kiner Finishes With 42nd Homer

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1 (AP)—Ralph Kiner finished up the Pittsburgh Pirates' National league season by bashing his 42nd home run of the year with the bases loaded and two out in the 11th inning yesterday to give the Pirates an 8-4 victory over Cincinnati.

Kiner's blast gave relief pitcher Bill Werle his eighth win against six losses and brought the Buc slugger to within one grand slam home run of tying Rogers Hornsby's National league mark of 12.

Kiner hit three grand slams this year. Yesterday's clout broke a 4-4 tie and assured the Pirates of finishing out of the cellar. A slim crowd of 9,068 saw the Pirates come from behind with three runs in the seventh only to have Cincinnati tie it up with one run in the eighth.

After taking the ball, Dallastown started its own drive which went to the Springers' 30 from where Kern threw a flat pass to Snyder who raced for a score.

Midway in the second period York Springs fumbled on its own 24 where Dallastown recovered. A short time later Snyder circled right end to score from the 18.

Scoreless Period
The third period was evenly waged and developed into a punting duel between Mac Lott of the Springers and Dehoff of Dallastown.

Dallastown's two-platform system began to take an obvious toll on the under-manned York Springs team in the final period and two touchdowns resulted. Dallastown rolled up five straight first downs to the York

Clay Evans' Thunderbolts scored when Vic Reynolds circled left end from the 16-yard line. Reynolds had set the stage for the tally when he intercepted a Susquehannock pass and returned it 15 yards to the Susquehannock 25-yard line. It took three plays for Reynolds and Olinger to move the piskin to the 16 from where the former made his TD scamper. Olinger's kick for the point was wide.

Penalty Costly
Later in the second quarter Reynolds raced over from the 21 only to have the play called back and the Thunderbolts penalized 15 yards.

The Rev. Benjamin Keller, Pastor of St. James' Lutheran church, of this place, has accepted an agency in the Pennsylvania Synod for the collection of funds for the support of a Professorial Chair in Pennsylvania College. He leaves our town with his family in three weeks for Philadelphia. The congregation over which he has had spiritual charge, will lose a faithful pastor, and our community one who has always commanded their love and respect.

Married: On the 29th ult., by the Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. Charles H. Austin, of Hartford, Conn., to Miss Sarah Louise Hause, of Mountjoy township, Adams county.

In Chambersburg, on the 25th ult., by the Rev. Alfred Nevin, Mr. Samuel J. Smith, of Strasburg township, to Miss Sarah, daughter of Mr. Peter Latshaw, of Butler township.

The remains of Stephen Girard were re-interred on Tuesday, in their final resting place, near Philadelphia, at the Girard College for Orphans, reared by his beneficencies. There was on the occasion a most brilliant exhibition, under the direction of the Masons, of which Mr. Girard was a member. The number of Masons in the procession was about 1,800, and the Mayor and Council of the City, with all the public officers and citizens, swelled the line to the length of ten squares. The orator of the day was Joseph R. Chandler, Esq.—The appearance of the orphans, numbering upwards to 300, was a truly beautiful sight. There were six of the finest military bands of the City in procession, averaging at least fifteen performers each.

The Whies of Bucks County on Tuesday nominated our townsman, Daniel M. Smyser, Esq., as their candidate for President Judge of that district.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Perry J. Tawney is putting up a two-story frame house opposite the Battlefield Hotel.

The Cashtown Cornet Band has secured a handsome wagon, and is now prepared to fill engagements.

The Fair: The fourteenth annual exhibition of the Adams County Agricultural Society commenced its meeting on Tuesday. The entries in the various classes are superior in quality and equal in quantity to those of any previous exhibition. The display of women's fancy work in the Hall is fuller and more tasteful than usual and in the same building there is a full exhibition of sewing machines, melodeons, cabinet organs, &c., together with some elegant specimens of apples, peaches, grapes and other articles. The entries of farm stock are said to be the best ever seen at our Fair. Fine horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens, &c.

The county trot premium $50, was won by ex-Sheriff Hersh's "Gray Lucy."

Wednesday afternoon between 40 and 50 masqueraders on horse-back in every variety of motley costume, made somewhat of a sensation on our streets, en route to the Fair Grounds.

The $25 trot was won by J. Upton Neely's "Sorrel Dick."

Mr. J. H. Huber, son of the late Dr. H. S. Huber, of this place, has purchased the Amberson drug store in Waynesboro. Mr. H. is a clever young fellow, a bright druggist, and he has our best wishes for a successful career.

Messrs. W. C. Stallsmith & Son, of this place, have been employed to finish the new Methodist church in Littlestown, which for some reason was abandoned by the contractor.

Married: Brown-Mickley.—On the 26th ult., by Rev. A. R. Kremer, Mr. John D. Brown to Miss Jennie Mickley, both of Adams county.

Bittinger-Stine.—On the 27th ult., in St. Mark's Lutheran church, Hanover, by Rev. Daniel Schindler, assisted by Rev. A. C. Ehrenfeld, Mr. John R. Bittinger, of Berwick Twp.,

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

HE WHO "SPARKS" OTHERS

I recently heard a sports announcer for baseball say that it made such a difference in a baseball team to have one or two members who "sparked" the rest of the team and he referred to a former player, who was no longer a member, having retired after a long service in the game, and noted how he was missed.

I couldn't help think how true that statement was. You may recall that remarkable story by the late Ernie Pyle about Capt. Henry T. Waskow of Belton, Texas, and of the grief at his death. He was an officer who "sparked" and put courage into every soldier under his command. I like that line that Pyle quoted, coming from one of the soldiers: "He'd go to bat for us every time."

Alonso Stagg, the great former football coach for the Maroons at Chicago University, many years ago, is now in his 89th year, but is still an inspiring figure to all who have ever known or contacted him. I believe he still gives wise advice to the College of the Pacific at Stockton, California, where he now lives. But what made him so great was that his genius for direction was flavored heavily with a remarkable character, and it was this that "sparked" his boys to victory so many times.

The loss of leaders like Theodore Roosevelt and Wendell Willkie is always unfortunate, for they "spark" and inspire all those about them and the nation at large. History is yet to appraise General of the Army Douglas MacArthur as one of the most inspiring leaders in all military history. He has always been the leader. That's why the men under his command never feared to follow him. He's missed in Japan and Korea — but not by Russia!

There are certain personalities which give you a lift the moment they are in your presence. They inspire confidence, hope, and faith. They brush fear aside. They warm all near them by their courage. I have a personal letter from Admiral Peary in which he told me of someone who asked one of his men what they were thinking when up in that far North country. The reply was: "We did no thinking, Peary was with us. He did our thinking!"

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Imagination."

OCTOBER ARTISTS
When nature orders pictures for October to display.
She never has them painted in some ultra modern way.
Just familiar scenes of beauty from her artists she demands
By the good old-fashioned method everybody understands.

She wants her landscapes pictured as they've done it year by year.
With a skill no man can equal and the meaning must be clear.
There must be no hidden motive, as if beauty shouldn't show
That might mar the golden glory of the autumn mortals know.

The colors must be brilliant: yellow, scarlet, bronze and gold
Every patch of woods be tinted with the artistry of old.
Mother nature simply tells them: "Paint the hills and fields again
In the way the Lord established. Leave the modern way to men."

17 FAMILIES ARE LEFT HOMELESS

Seventeen families were left homeless after a series of explosions spread a racing fire through a big frame apartment house Sunday night in Westminster.

All the tenants escaped without injury, but two firefighters suffered minor injuries when a ladder fell with them from against the blazing building.

Wilbur E. Zepp, who owns the building, said it was worth $125,000. Personal property destroyed was estimated at $36,000.

The apartment house was half a block long and two stories high, with nine three-room apartments on each floor.

The second floor was almost completely destroyed, and the first floor so badly damaged by fire and water that firemen said all property inside would be a total loss.

The fire broke out in one of the second-floor apartments shortly before 9 p.m.

Delay Production For Deadlier Arms

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—The government may be holding back volume production of some weapons so scientists can come up with deadlier models.

A hint to that effect was contained in a new report last night on the defense program from Chief Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson. He said the armed services are keeping constantly in mind the problem of fast production as against the advantages of waiting for a better weapon.

Expressing general satisfaction with the entire mobilization, Wilson said the nation is on the threshold of mass military production with the "tooling up" stage about over.

But he said "our nation is in danger" and consequently progress in getting ready for quantity production "can never be fast enough. A basic consideration always present," his report to President Truman said, "is that the extent to which quantity production should be held back in order that new and superior models may be substituted for those now in production or about to be produced."

Keeping American Families In Germany

Heidelberg, Germany, Oct. 1 (AP)—The U. S. army said officially today that American women and children are remaining in Germany because their morale value "outweighs the risks involved."

The estimated 45,000 dependents of U. S. occupation forces will continue to live here "unless changes in the political and military situation warrant" their removal, army headquarters said.

There is a growing debate over the dangers of these women and children remaining so near the iron curtain. The risks are that they might be overrun in case of a sudden Soviet attack across Germany—or that U. S. troops might be hampered in resisting an attack because of their efforts to evacuate their families to safety.

Military men acknowledge these risks. The army statement said the question "is subject to constant review by U. S. authorities in Washington and in the European command."

FALL COMBAT OF CORN ENEMIES

Pre-winter war on the corn earworm and European corn borer pays big dividends the following summer. In fact, effective control of these two destructive enemies of both sweet and field corn can be attained only by emphasis on careful sanitation measures before winter as well as direct combat during the growing season. Fortunately such sanitary practices belong to wise and progressive cultural methods anyway.

As most gardeners and farmers know, the corn earworm spends the winter in a cocoon or pupal cell 7 to 9 inches deep in the soil near where the larva (worm) of the last brood fell from the ear it infested. In other words, the pest lives over winter in the soil or near the area where infested corn grew the previous summer. Of course, many egg-laying moths develop throughout the north from caterpillars brought in during spring moths in sweet corn shipped from southern gardens.

Every gardener should plow, disk, spade or otherwise deeply turn all sweet corn soils in late fall to expose the dormant larva or pupa and to destroy the smooth burrow which it has left in the soil for the emergence of the fragile miller or moth the next spring. Ear worms do not survive in stalks or other corn refuse.

With the gradual spread eastward and southward of the hungry European corn borer, farmers and gardeners are faced with the imperative task of reducing the over-wintering numbers of this foe. Like other borers, this pest cannot be successfully combated after it enters the growing stalk. War must be waged at other seasons, and late fall offers the most favorable opportunity. To understand this important fact as well as to determine effective measures it is necessary to know how the borer lives over winter.

The borer lies dormant over winter inside corn stalks and stems of woody weeds and ornamental plants which it infests in late summer. In May these larvae pupate and turn into adult moths, the female laying her eggs on corn foliage and perhaps on leaves of a few other plants. The tiny grubs (larvae) hatching from these eggs soon find their way into the green stalks where they feed and grow to full-sized borers. They feed in the ears and tassels as well as in the stalks.

While spraying with rotenone during the egg-hatching period will kill many young larvae, such combat must continue as a means of control. But it is in destruction of the over-wintering forms that opportunity for complete extermination is found. Individual gardeners and farmers should not only practice needed sanitation along this line but they should induce all their neighbors to join them. Final solution of this problem can come only through community-wide cooperation.

All corn stalks should be cut off at the ground soon after corn is harvested. Of course, the farmer who utilizes his corn via the silo automatically gains this end. If corn refuse is saved for compost, stalks should be cut into one-inch lengths or shorter in order to insure destruction of the larvae they may contain. Such precaution is far more economical than the easier method of burning. Stalks thoroughly tramped in feedlots by cattle usually harbor no over-wintering borers.

The editor invites all related questions on this important subject.

LILY-OF-VALLEY INDOOR FLOWER

It is not difficult to bring lily-of-the-valley into bloom in the winter garden if the correct method is used. Garden clumps do not force well, so it is best to purchase specially treated slips which have been in cold storage for a month or more. These should be planted close together, at least eight or ten for a good effect, in the pot or bowl. It is not necessary to use soil, for they force equally well in bowls of moss or bulb fiber. This should be moistened thoroughly before planting by saturating it in a pail of water, then squeezing out the excess before it is placed in the bowl, which need have no drainage. The slips should be planted so that just the tips protrude.

The bowl should then be placed in a warm, dark room or closet for ten days. After this time, it may be brought gradually into the light. To obtain long stems the florist usually forces this flower completely in the dark, but if this is done no leaves are formed. The fresh, green foliage is a part of the beauty of lily-of-the-valley grown in the home.

Unlike most spring flowers, lily-of-the-valley needs heat for forcing. Seventy-five to eighty degrees is not too much, and thus success may be had in living rooms too warm for other flowers. Blooms may be had in three weeks from time of planting.

Lily-of-the-valley, forced into flower, provides a dainty and fragrant bouquet indoors.

LATE FALL IDEAL TIME TO PLANT ROSE BUSHES

The late fall season is an ideal time to transplant rose bushes or produce new ones for the garden, says J. W. Johnston in the New York Herald Tribune. At this season there is less garden work than in early spring and the weather is more likely to be favorable for such work. Many times in early spring rose plants have to sit around waiting for excessively wet soil to dry, but this condition is not likely to exist in the fall.

Soil Preparation Is Key

Roses planted in the fall will do equally as well as those set out in the spring, provided the soil is properly prepared, and will come into flower earlier than those spring planted. All types may be planted, including floribunda, hybrid tea and climbers. In the case of climbers it is well to leave the canes down on the soil and cover them with soil the first winter.

New rose introductions for each year are generally first available for fall planting, and as the supply of new varieties is limited, fall buying and planting of these is advised.

The success or failure of most rose planting is generally decided with the soil preparation. There are few plants that will give greater rewards for proper soil conditioning. If laid out in design in a rose garden it will not be necessary to prepare all of the area. Trenches eighteen inches to two feet wide and two feet deep will do the trick. This may seem like a lot of excavating, but once finished your worries are over for years.

To insure drainage, place a six-inch layer of broken crock, coarse cinders or stones in the bottom of the trench. Well decayed or dehydrated cow manure and peat may be mixed with the soil to improve its physical structure and to add to its fertility. Good compost or commercial humus are equally valuable for this soil improvement.

FARMERS BANK OBSERVES ITS
30TH BIRTHDAY

The Farmers State bank of Emmitsburg celebrated its 30th anniversary Saturday evening, with a banquet for the directors, employees and their wives in the Lutheran parish house. A roast turkey dinner was served by the women of the church. Guests included Charles A. Harner, one of the original incorporators of the bank, and Mrs. Harner, and Robert E. Delaphaine, president of the Farmers and Mechanics National bank of Frederick, and Mrs. Delaphaine.

The program was arranged by two of the directors, Col. Thomas J. Frailey and Quinn P. Topper. Dr. William R. Cadie, another director, was the toastmaster. Mr. Delaphaine congratulated the bank, its officers, directors and employees. George L. Wilhide, cashier, gave a brief history of the bank.

Weathered Storms

According to the first published statement of the bank, dated December 31, 1921, three months after the organization, the assets were $121,248.29. He read from other statements showing the steady growth of the bank. Mr. Wilhide also showed how the institution had "weathered" several "storms," such as bank closings, depressions, bank holidays and other difficulties. The bank's assets today, he said, are in excess of $1,640,000. Demand deposits exceed $800,000 and savings deposits total more than $600,000. The bank was chartered October 1, 1921.

Mr. Wilhide has been connected with the bank since its organization. He has been cashier since 1931 and a director since 1945. Only two of the original incorporators survive, Peter F. Burkett and Mr. Harner.

Millard P. Shuff, president of the bank, has also been with it since its organization. He was a director and vice president, and president since 1926. He is now in his 93rd year. Mr. Shuff was given a desk pen with his name imprinted in gold. Mr. Wilhide was given a pen and pencil set.

Others Receive Gifts

Each of the other employees received fountain pens. Corsages were presented to the ladies. William H. Bollinger and Peter F. Burkett received leather wallets with their names in gold. They and President Shuff are the only ones of the original directors still serving the bank.

Present directors are: William H. Bollinger, Peter F. Burkett, Dr. William R. Cadie, Col. Thomas J. Frailey, Charles R. Fuss, Millard P. Shuff, Quinn P. Topper, Oliver J. Waybright and George L. Wilhide. Employees of the bank are: George L. Wilhide, cashier; Frank W. Weant, assistant cashier; Alice Roddy Shorb, bookkeeper and clerk; Marie G. Rosensteel, stenographer and clerk.

Harrisburg, Oct. 1 (AP) — Gov. John S. Pine has signed into law a bill assuring legislative clerks of extra pay for their services in long sessions of the General Assembly.

Another Banker Is Held As Embezzler

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1 (AP) — The FBI checked records of the nearby Indiana First National bank today after arresting Samuel Paul Lewis, 62, assistant cashier, in the seventh banking shortage turned up in the western Pennsylvania-West Virginia area within a year.

Lewis, a man whom associates and friends termed "the last person in the world" they would suspect of embezzlement, was in Allegheny county jail after failing to post $15,000 bail.

FBI Agent Fred Hallford said Lewis admitted taking $48,479.39 of the bank's funds since October, 1947, but claims to have replaced the entire amount. Hallford said, however, that bank examiners report there is still $40,000 missing from the funds. The listed shortage makes $2,885,499 the total which the FBI says has been embezzled from seven banks in western Pennsylvania and West Virginia in the past 12 months.

The measure provides for payment to the clerks of $11 a day for each day they work beyond June 15. The pay would be in addition to their regular salary for the Legislature session.

Harrisburg, Oct. 1 (AP) — It's necessary today for the first time to register trademarks every 10 years in Pennsylvania.

Gov. John S. Pine signed a bill into law Thursday requiring an individual or firm who registered a trademark with the secretary of the commonwealth to make the periodic renewals. Until now, the privilege was held forever. The new

Hanover Housewife
Killed In Crash

Harrisburg, Oct. 1 (AP) — A Hanover housewife, a Philipsburg dentist and a Shippensburg youth were killed in separate traffic accidents yesterday in central Pennsylvania. The dead are Mrs. Catherine Frock, 34, of Hanover; Charles H. Tritt, 22, of Shippensburg R. 2, and Dr. Frank H. Gette, 52, of Philipsburg.

Mrs. Frock was fatally injured as the family car, driven by her husband, Earl K. Frock, collided with an auto driven by Foster Grosh, 34, of State College. She died six hours later at the Harrisburg hospital. Grosh was admitted with a compound fracture of the left leg while Frock and son, Richard, were treated and discharged.

Tritt died instantly near Mt. Zion in Cumberland county when the car in which he was riding struck a tree. There were no other injuries. Dr. Gette was killed in a two-car crash six miles west of Port Matilda in Centre county when police said he made a left turn into the path of another car. Six other persons were injured, two of them seriously.

REV. K. D. JAMES
RESIGNS; WILL LEAVE OCT. 31

The Rev. Kenneth D. James, who has served as pastor of St. John's Lutheran church for the past 11 years, has resigned. He announced his resignation officially to the members of the church council at their meeting on Tuesday evening and he made a formal announcement to the congregation at the worship service on Sunday morning.

The resignation, which is to be effective October 31, was accepted with regret. On November 1, the Rev. Mr. James will move to Glen Rock to assume the pastorate of the Glen Rock church.

He was ordained to the ministry in St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Hanover, on July 29, 1950, following graduation from the Lutheran Theological seminary in Gettysburg in May of that year. He served as pastor of the New Chester Lutheran church from 1950 to 1954 and he began work at Littlestown in October 1954. He was graduated from the Hanover high school and from Susquehanna university with the class of 1953. He was a member of Phi Mu Delta fraternity, president of the Theological club and served as assistant in the library, while at college. The Rev. Mr. James is married to the former Elsie Mae Slagle, daughter of Mrs. Emma Slagle, 453 Canale street, Hanover, and the late Harry B. Slagle. They have one son, Kenneth Slagle James. The Rev. Mr. James has been active in community affairs, now serving as president of the Littlestown Ministerium. He is also a past president and charter member of the Littlestown Lions club. He organized the Cub Scouts in the community and he served as principal of the Daily Vacation Bible school during the past summer. He has also served as a member of the Board of Health in Littlestown. He succeeds the Rev. Karl H. Mumford at Glen Rock who is serving as a chaplain in the United States Air Force. In his new charge, he will be pastor of Zion church, Glen Rock, and St. Paul's church, Hametown.

Judge Sheely Speaks

Judge W. C. Sheely was the guest speaker for the annual Rally Day services at St. John's Lutheran church school on Sunday morning. The speaker addressed the largest gathering in the history of the present pastorate on the subject, "Here Am I." Prior to the program, which was in charge of the committee consisting of Harry W. Badders, Mrs. Malcolm I. Heiser and L. Robert Crouse, a brief business session was conducted by the individual classes. The large group then assembled in the adult Sunday school room, with Wilbur E. Mackley, superintendent of the adult department, in charge. The program opened with a congregational hymn, followed with a vocal solo, "Bless This Home," by Gary Stevens. Judge Sheely then addressed the group, after which a vocal duet was sung by the Misses Evelyn Harget and Brenda Hess.

Promotional exercises were conducted by Paul E. King, general superintendent of the Sunday school. Advancements were as follows: Jacques Carpenter, David Mackley, Janet Croabs, Glenn Lippy, Lewis Miller, Jr., Joel Mummert, Shirley Renner and Frances Gerick, from the intermediate to the adult department; Brenda Barnes, Louise Greff, Ruby Myers, Judy Myers, Clyde Brumard, Larry Myers, James DeGroot and Daniel Boose, from the primary to the intermediate department. Following the exercises the program continued with a vocal duet, "Beyond the Sunset," by Susan and Joyce Stevens. The Rally Day service closed with a hymn by the group and the benediction was pronounced by the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth D. James.

At the Sunday morning worship service the pastor announced that Kenneth Lee Stamatach was recommended for church membership by the confirmation class. The full preparatory service and Holy Communion will be held in the church at 7:30 a.m. on Sunday, October 1. Preparatory services and Holy Communion will be held at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m., and a special baptismal service will be held at 11 a.m.

Read Bishop's Letter

At the St. John's church service on Sunday morning the pastor read the Bishop's letter to the clergy and laity of the Diocese of Harrisburg. The letter was read by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. James, and the individual families at home during October the month dedicated to Our Lady, Queen of the Holy Rosary.

Father Shannahan also announced that the quarterly meeting of the Conewago Deacons' Council of Catholic Women will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Ignatius parish, Buchanan Valley. There will not be a board meeting, as is customary, but only the open meeting for all clergy and women of the deacons. The St. Ignatius Parish Council of Catholic Women will sponsor a public party on Saturday, October 13, at 8:15 p.m., in the parish hall. The party proceeds will be given to the Sisters of Mercy to purchase necessities in the convent. Members of the parish are requested to send contributions to the food store, to be held in conjunction with the party. Daily mass during October will begin at 8 a.m. and Holy Communion will be distributed outside of mass at 7:15 a.m., except Friday, the First Friday of the month.

Banns of matrimony were published for the first time at the late mass between Cathleen A. Cochran, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Cochran, Littlestown R. D., of the parish and Raymond J. Small, son of Mrs. Florine C. Small, of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary parish, McSherrystown.

FREDERICK PAYS
CIVIL WAR DEBT

Frederick, Md., Oct. 1 (AP)—Frederick makes the last payment today on the $200,000 ransom it had to turn over to Confederate soldiers 87 years ago to keep them from sacking the town.

Since the Civil War, the townspeople have paid off the sum, bit by bit, waiting for the federal government to take over what they consider is its moral and legal obligation.

The interest on the original sum has amounted to an estimated $600,000. The exact sum cannot be determined because through the years the debt has been combined with several municipal bond issues. Today's final payoff $200,000 went to a local bank in its capacity as agent for some of the bond holders.

Three times Maryland congressmen have tried to get the federal government to repay the town for the ransom paid out to protect Union Army stores valued at more than the amount of the ransom. But each try proved to be a lost cause.

CHIROPRACTOR

EMMITSBURG, MD.

The ransom, amounting to nearly 1 10th of the city's recorded monetary value, was paid to General Jubal Early.

The Confederate officer threatened to raze the town unless the money was paid. The mayor and aldermen instructed the town's five banks to hand over the money from their vaults. Later the banks were reimbursed and the debt taken over formally as a city obligation.

REV. K. D. JAMES RESIGNS; WILL LEAVE OCT. 31

The Rev. Kenneth D. James, who has served as pastor of St. John's Lutheran church for the past 11 years, has resigned. He announced his resignation officially to the members of the church council at their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening and he made a formal announcement to the congregation at the worship service on Sunday morning.

The resignation, which is to become effective October 31, was accepted with regret. On November 1, the Rev. Mr. James will move to Glen Rock to assume the pastorate of the Glen Rock charge.

He was ordained to the ministry in St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Hanover, on July 29, 1936, following graduation from the Lutheran Theological seminary in Gettysburg in May of that year. He served as pastor of the New Chester Lutheran church from 1936 to 1940 and he began work in Littlestown in October, 1940. He was graduated from the Hanover high school and from Susquehanna university with the class of 1933. He was a member of Phi Mu Delta fraternity, president of the Theological club and served as assistant in the library, while at college. The Rev. Mr. James is married to the former Elsie Mae Slagle, daughter of Mrs. Emma Slagle, 453 Carlisle street, Hanover, and the late Harry B. Slagle. They have one son, Kenneth Slagle James. The Rev. Mr. James has been active in community affairs, now serving as president of the Littlestown Ministerium. He is also a past president and charter member of the Littlestown Lions club; he organized the Cub Scouts in the community and he served as principal of the Daily Vacation Bible school during the past summer. He has also served as a member of the Board of Health in Littlestown. He succeeds the Rev. Karl H. Mumford at Glen Rock who is serving as a chaplain in the United States Air Force. In his new charge, he will be pastor of Zion church, Glen Rock, and St. Paul's church, Hametown.

Judge Sheely Speaks

Judge W. C. Sheely was the guest speaker for the annual Rally Day services at St. John's Lutheran church school on Sunday morning. The speaker addressed the largest gathering in the history of the present pastorate on the subject, "Here Am I." Prior to the program, which was in charge of the committee consisting of Harry W. Badders, Mrs. Malcolm I. Heiser and L. Robert Crouse, a brief business session was conducted by the individual classes. The large group then assembled in the adult Sunday school room, with Wilbur E. Mackley, superintendent of the adult department, in charge. The program opened with a congregational hymn, followed with a vocal solo, "Bless This House," by Gary Strevig. Judge Sheely then addressed the group, after which a vocal duet was sung by the Misses Evelyn Harget and Brenda Hess.

Promotional exercises were conducted by Paul E. King, general superintendent of the Sunday school. Advancements were as follows: Jacques Carpenter, David Mackley, Janet Crabbs, Glenn Lipsey, Lewis Motter, Jr., Joel Mummert, Shirley Renner and Francis Gerrick, from the intermediate to the adult department; Brenda Barnes, Louise Groft, Ruby Myers, Judy Myers, Clyde Brumgard, Larry Myers, James DeGroft and Daniel Boose, from the primary to the intermediate department. Following the exercises the program continued with a vocal duet, "Beyond the Sunset," by Susan and Joyce Strevig. The Rally Day service closed with a hymn by the group and the benediction was pronounced by the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth D. James.

At the Sunday morning worship service the pastor announced that Kenneth Lee Stambaugh was received into the church membership by rite of confirmation last Monday. The fall preparatory service and Holy Communion will be held on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. On Sunday, October 7, preparatory services and Holy Communion will take place at 8 and 10:15 a.m., and a public baptismal service will be held at 2 p.m.

Read Bishop's Letter

At the Sunday morning masses at St. Aloysius church the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, read a pastoral letter from Bishop George L. Leech, Harrisburg, requesting the congregation to comply with the wishes of the Holy Father, that the Rosary be recited daily in the church by the children of the school and by the individual families at home during October, the month

FREDERICK PAYS CIVIL WAR DEBT

Frederick, Md., Oct. 1 (AP)—Frederick makes the last payment today on the $200,000 ransom it had to turn over to Confederate soldiers 87 years ago to keep them from sacking the town.

Since the Civil War, the townpeople have paid off the sum, bit by bit, waiting for the federal government to take over what they consider is its moral and legal obligation.

The interest on the original sum has amounted to an estimated $600,000. The exact sum cannot be determined because through the years the debt has been combined with several municipal bond issues. Today's final payoff $200,000 went to a local bank in its capacity as agent for some of the bond holders.

Three times Maryland congressmen have tried to get the federal government to repay the town for the ransom paid out to protect Union Army stores valued at more than the amount of the ransom. But each try proved to be a lost cause.

DR. D. L. BEEGLE CHIROPRACTOR Phone Emmitsburg 117 EMMITSBURG, MD.

The ransom, amounting to nearly 1/10th of the city's recorded monetary value, was paid to General Jubal Early.

The Confederate officer threatened to raze the town unless the money was paid. The mayor and aldermen instructed the town's five banks to hand over the money from their vaults. Later the banks were reimbursed and the debt taken over formally as a city obligation.

HENRY T. BREAM

defeated Bucknell in the famous 1928 game here. He reminisced as a member of the first frosh grid squad Bream coached here. He paid tribute to Dr. Hanson's "policy of sensible athletics that takes the pressure off the coach and that has made Gettysburg athletics succeed so well." He also lauded Capozzi and Bilheimer. "Bill" Duncan then introduced Mrs. Henry T. Bream and their son, Jack; John A. Apple, Sunbury, president of the college alumni; C. Paul Cessna, alumni secretary; Glenn L. "Yockie" Bream, former president of the athletic council, and Jesse Koller, class of 1950, one of a pair of "great halfbacks on the team of '98." Then he introduced the present varsity football squad and the "team of 1960," the all-star midgets attending as guests of the Gettysburg lodge of the Elks.

Bringing greetings from the college, Dr. Hanson said that athletics was "once regarded as something foreign to education" but that now "no department of the college deserves greater emphasis or greater care than athletics." He described "Hen" Bream as "just as clean and wholesome as any member of our faculty."

"Vic" Emmanuel, brother of the late "Snaps" Emmanuel and "one of the greatest ends Gettysburg ever had," was introduced by the toastmaster before he read greetings from Dick Harlow, former Harvard coach, and "Red" Griffiths at Marietta, Ohio, former Gettysburg line coach.
